REFUND POLICY

Cancellation of enrollment after more than SEVEN days after the start of class shall be entitled to a refund. The student has a right to withdraw from school at any time and receive a refund for the portion of the course not completed. The refund amount will be “prorated” according to the uncompleted portion of the course, less the cost to the school of any unreturned equipment and a registration fee which will not exceed $150.00. The refund will be made within 30 days after the date the school receives the student's written Notice of Cancellation.

In the event that the school is permanently closed and no longer able to offer instruction after a student enrolls, the student will be entitled to a pro-rata refund of tuition as outlined in this refund policy, and the enrollment agreement. If a course has been cancelled subsequent to a student's enrollment, the school shall at its option, provide a full refund of all funds paid, or provide completion of the course. If an applicant is not accepted for enrollment by the school, all funds paid will be refunded immediately.

WITHDRAWALS and REFUNDS

(a) Every institution shall make refunds that are no less than the refunds required under the Act and this Division.

(b) An institution may not enforce any refund policy that is not specified in the catalog as required pursuant to section 94909(a)(8)(B) of the Code, and must refund all institutional charges upon a student's withdrawal.

(c) A pro rata refund pursuant to section 94919(c) or 94920(d) or 94927 of the Code shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student, calculated as follows:

(1) The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended, or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal.

(2) Except as provided for in subdivision (a) (3) of this section, all amounts paid by the student in excess of what is owed as calculated in subdivision (a)(1) shall be refunded.

(3) Except as provided herein, all amounts that the student has paid shall be subject to refund unless the enrollment agreement and the refund policy outlined in the catalog specify amounts paid for an application fee or deposit not more than $250.00, books, supplies, or equipment, and specify whether and under what circumstances those amounts are non-refundable. Except when an institution provides a 100% refund pursuant to section 94919(d) or section 94920 of the Code, any assessment paid pursuant to section 94923 of the Code is non-refundable.

(4) For purposes of determining a refund under the Act and this section, a student shall be considered to have withdrawn from an educational program when he or she withdraws or is deemed withdrawn in accordance with the withdrawal policy stated in its catalog.

(d) If an institution has collected money from a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for a bond, library usage, or fees for a license, application, or examination and the institution has not paid the money to the third party at the time of the student's withdrawal or cancellation, the institution shall refund the money to the student within 45 days of the student's withdrawal or cancellation.

(e) An institution shall refund any credit balance on the student's account within 45 days after the date of the student's completion of, or withdrawal from, the educational program in which the student was enrolled. For purposes of this subdivision and section 94919(d) of the Code, "day" means calendar day.

(f) The institution shall maintain a Cancellation and withdrawal log, kept current on a monthly basis, which shall include the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and dates of cancellations or withdrawal of all students who have cancelled the enrollment agreement with, or withdrawn from, the institution during the calendar year."

MANDATORY CANCELLATION, WITHDRAWAL, and REFUND POLICIES

(a) All cancellations must be submitted in writing, “and that a withdrawal may be by student’s written notice or by the student’s conduct, including, but not necessary limited to, a student’s lack of attendance.”

(b) “Institution shall refund 100 percent of the about paid for the institution charged, less a reasonable deposited or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancelation is made through attendant at the first class section, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later”

(c)The bureau may adopt by regulation a different method of calculation for institution delivered by other means, Including, but not necessarily limited to, distance education”

(d) Pro rata refund

| Schedule % of Course completed | Amount of Refund to student |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 0.01% TO 4.9%                         | 80%                                |

| 60% AND OVER                          | 0%                                 |

(e)The institution shall pay or credit refund within 45 days of a student’s cancellation or withdrawal.”

HYPOTHETICAL EXAMPLES:

A Student is enrolled in a course that consists of 1600 hours long

- A student is scheduled for 6 hours per day
- Tuition charge is $4,000.00.
- There are no special equipment charges for this hypothetical student’s course.
- This student with draws from class after completing 10 days of the course therefore total attended hours: 60 hours (0.0375% of the time length course)
- The refund would be calculated as follows:

(A) Deduct a registration fee $ 200.00 from the total tuition charge: $ 4,000.00-$200= $3,800.00

(B) Divide the total hours student earned by the number of hours in the program

(C) The percentage length scheduled 60 hrs./1600 hrs.=0.0375%

(D) The amount owed by the student is calculated 20% ( .20 x $ 3,80.00= $760.00)

(E) The refund would be any amount in excess of the figure derived in subparagraph (D) that was paid by the student:

$$$3,800.00 - $ 760.00 = 3,040.00$$

(F) The refund amount to the student will be $ 3,040.00 minus the equipment charge, if any.

The refund amount shall be adjusted accordingly which is provided in “RIGHT TO CANCELLATION” for equipment, if applicable

EQUIPMENT SUPPLY REFUNDS

Once purchased, any equipment and materials specified on the Equipment Schedule become the property of the Student/Buyer, unless such materials are returned in usable condition within 10 days of the Student/Buyer’s withdrawal from school. Such materials will exclude health and sanitary items. The Seller/School will refund only the amount that exceeds the documented cost of such materials.

Recognized health and sanitary restrictions prevent the school from accepting the return of equipment and materials specified in the Equipment Schedule.
